

Poster promoting: Free Passage to South Australia, a free colony. An opportunity now offers itself to all married persons of useful occupation, particularly to agricultural labourers, carpenters, builders, stonemasons, shepherds and blacksmiths.

How would you feel about moving to another country for work?

RM

BRITISH FARM APPRENTICES

Around 2,000 British boys, some as young as 14, migrated from Britain to South Australia during the 1910s and 1920s to take part in South Australia's Farm Apprenticeship schemes.

Why do you think girls didn't join the scheme?

VA

BLENNHEIM FARM

Blenheim Farm was established by John and Jemima Ward who arrived in South Australia in 1852. The picture shows a two-room stone cottage, newly cleared land and some of the first fruit trees and vines in the Clare Valley.

was cleared?

AGRICULTURAL TOOLS

Rake, scythe, wheelbarrow, grain shovel and saw.

What do you think these tools were used for?

Migration Museum
82 Kintore Avenue, Adelaide
08 8207 7570 | migrationmuseum.com.au

Opening hours: 10am - 5pm daily
Closed Christmas Day
Admission: it's free!

Hi Agsplorer, thanks for visiting Your State Your History at stamp site 7.
For instructions to make the chatterbox go to: migrationmuseum.com.au

British Farm Apprentices

Blenheim Farm

Free Emigration

Agricultural tools

A museum of the History Trust of South Australia